Volunteer Spotlight: Laura Edelson Hooked on Mane Stream

Laura and her "crush" Ian

Laura once owned her own horse and has a clear love for the horses in our barn. She explained how Ian, one of the Norwegian Fjord horses was her "first crush" at the barn, and even had her oldest son, also named Ian come in to meet his horse "twin!"

A retired teacher, Laura's interest was sparked when finding a volunteer outlet where she could combine two of her passions, kids and horses...

Field Trip at Mane Stream Girl Scouts Shake It Up!

No, these Girl Scouts from Troop 82137 of Eastern Pennsylvania are not weighing themselves. They are standing on a device called a Theraplate which uses small vibrations to increase circulation for pain reduction and injury prevention in horses.

Did you know that Mane Stream also has a human-sized version in the therapy clinic that therapists use on clients?

Volunteer Birthdays

Deloitte's Impact Day

Life's a Beach at Mane Stream

At least that's what the newly decorated bulletin board says thanks to the Deloitte employees who came to Mane Stream on June 9 for a day of exercise, fresh air and HARD WORK.

When several of the more creative Deloitte employees were tasked with decorating the bulletin board in a summer beach theme in preparation for our campers, they came up with this awesome design where each of the Mane Stream Herd has their own personalized beach blanket.
