The MANE STREAM eCURRENT

Unbridled Possibilities for Children & Adults with Special Needs

From Camper to Competitor

Even though it can be difficult getting to know each horse's personality and learning how to tell the horses what to do, Alex's mom, Cathy, indicated that "riding really calms Alex down and makes him feel better." Alex says, "It's interesting how each horse feels so different." He can't wait to master cantering!

Introducing Our 5 Summer Program Volunteers

Aren't we lucky? We think so!!

We've got two recent college graduates, a high school senior and a freshman attending Barnard College.

A social worker, a psychology major, a communications major...who is who? You'll just have to read the whole story.

#BootScootinBBQ Big Success!

Fun for the whole family

A full moon and moody clouds created a beautiful evening in the fields of Red Tail Farm for the 5th Annual Boot Scootin' BBQ held on Saturday, June 2nd. Finally, after several days of rain, it all stopped! By Saturday, June 2nd the fields were dry and over 300 people had Combine your interest in horses with your profession (OT, OTA, PT, PTA, SLP, SLPA).

This course will incorporate sensory integration theory, review neuroanatomy, and cover horse selection and use of the environment to address sensory processing challenges.

DONATE YOUR USED TACK

for a good cause!

Consider starting a used tack drive at your barn to help make our Fall Tack Sale on October 28th a success. We can't do it without YOU!

Clean out your tack box, closet and jewelry box. We accept and appreciate donations of anything horse related.

Continuing Education:

Horse Behavior

Tuesday, July 31st @ 6:00pm

Learn the basics of Equine Behavior to ensure you can keep our participants, horses and volunteers safe.

From ears to tail to hooves...if you can predict when a horse is about to be aggressive or spook at something, you are better able to respond, and either avoid a dangerous situation, or prevent the behavior.
