CURRENT HAPPENINGS

33 Riders Compete in the Ring

This was one of the best turnouts we have had in years! Pair that with the sponsors and donors and this event raised almost $8,300 for the Mane Stream Adaptive Riding program. This year, for the first time, summer campers participated in the horse show. It was great to see the 8 campers again.

The Bee's Knees of the Gala Season

The Speakeasy (Equus XXVIII) Over 220 guests gathered to support and celebrate Mane Stream's mission at Trump National Golf Club on Saturday, October, 12th. The theme was a huge hit. Many attendees "dressed to kill", making for a festive evening. A spectacular 1933 Ford Model A Coupe at the entrance set the mood and served as the perfect prop for photos. Once inside....

Welcome Elli & Flicka!

Thanks to the many "Fjord Fund" donors we have acquired 2 NEW Fjords for our adaptive riding lessons and therapy sessions. We look forward to sharing pictures of them in action in 2020.

And remember, we are always interested in additional Fjords and ponies. If there is something out there...let us know.

Horse Cuddles and Happiness

Get to know NEW Volunteer Kaitlyn Kovar. She's brand new, having attended orientation & training in September and she's excited to pitch in.

What would you tell incoming volunteers who may be new to the horse world? Try not to be intimidated by the horses or the equipment. Everyone at Mane Stream is just so happy that you are...

Successful Tack Sale Thanks to You!

Once again the local community cleaned out their barns, tack trunks, and closets all in support of the Mane Stream Fall Tack Sale. Then on 10/27 people from far & wide came to grab a great deal. Currently, though we still have a couple more items under consideration, the sale has brought in...$4,300!

Thank you everyone!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Get Ready for... #GIVINGTUESDAY

Fairy dust and sparkles have already been spotted around the farm! Where
